FOR RELEASE 15 September 1945

Captain John B. Manly, husband of Mrs. Louise J. Manly (1st Lt. Army Nurse Corps), Tuskegee Institute, Alabama, graduated from the Army Air Forces School of Aviation Medicine, Randolph Field, Texas, on 15 September 1945.

Under the guidance of its Commandant, Brig. Gen. Eugen G. Reinartz, the School of Aviation Medicine, specializes in training physicians and surgeons in a special branch of medical knowledge practically unknown during World War I, but which now aids in safe-guarding the lives of Army pilots and Air Force personnel.

The intensive course in Aviation Medicine which Captain Manly has just completed is one prerequisite for attaining the wings of a "Flight Surgeon" in the Medical Corps, U. S. Army Air Forces.

Captain Manly received his A. B. degree from Talladega College, Talladega, Alabama, in 1931 and his M. D. degree from Howard University, Washington, D. C., in 1935.

He just recently returned from the African theater of operations.
